HORN BROOK NEWS.

L. H. Newton made an official trip to Montague and Weed the first of last week but failed to realize his object.

Mrs. Effie Fowler, well known in Hornbrook, having spent two weeks attending to some business, returned to her home in Eugene, Ore.

J. T. Anderson of Red Bluff, a lifelong friend of Rev. A. W. Walters of this place, went through Hornbrook on his way to Ashland, Ore., to spend the Fourth. He will operate his merry-go-round for the benefit of the children and grownups for the space of two weeks.

Marshal Horn returned home from a business trip to Willows.

The store of George Rader was broken into Thursday night. Nothing missing except 15 cents and some boxes of cookies.

The petition for the state highway is stirring up considerable interest in this upper section as to the proper course the highway should take. The following of the present road from Dunsaul to Session, Montague and Hornbrook, then straight to Oregon line instead of going by way of McCloud, Fall River out to Oregon.

Mr. Head, who has been foreman at the Seal mine down the river, stopped in Hornbrook on his way to Alaska.

George Rader was taken to Grants Pass to be placed under the care of Dr. Finley.

Mrs. Gordon Jacobs fell on the kitchen floor and paralyzed the arm that she fell on.

The regular Ladies' Aid business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Jacobs last Wednesday.

Charles Shriker, from Croy, came up to Hornbrook and hired a livery rig and drove to Yreka to see a physician in regard to their baby, who is sick.

Joe Williams is taking the place of Jack Shultz in the butcher shop. Jack is slowly recuperating from the results of his accident.

Mrs. D. H. Hill of Hill has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Trausan, of Hornbrook, the last few days.

Mrs. W. H. Roberts, sister of Marshal Horn of Hornbrook, came from Sacramento Friday for a visit with relatives.

TWO PETITIONS COMPLETE.

Total of 11,162 Signers Recorded on Papers Reaching Secretary.

Salem, Ore.—Two completed initiative petitions were received at the office of the secretary of state Thursday. One is to go before the people of the state at large and provides for the creation of Cascade county out of a portion of Clackamas county, and the other is a measure providing for a national bank in Jackson county to take care of the flotation of $1,500,000 worth of bonds for road purposes. The latter has 389 signers.

The petition carrying the bill to create Cascade county has 10,773 signers. It was filed by Claud W. de Vore, chairman of the Cascade county committee. Among other provisions it places the county seat temporarily at Estacada until the people of the new county have an opportunity to vote on the question. It also provides that for representative purposes the new county will be made a part of the 17th representative district, formerly Clackamas and Multnomah counties, and a part of the 12th senatorial district, formerly Clackamas county. It also provides that it will be attached to the first horticultural district.

Delegate is Censured.

Baltimore.—The Montana delegation, one of whose members voted against W. J. Bryan for temporary chairman of the democratic national convention last Tuesday, received the following telegram signed by 100 democrats of Butte:

"Wire us the name of the traitor in the Montana delegation who voted against Bryan so we can have it for future reference. Also tell him not to come home."

M. D. Boardman, 573 West Main street, Helena, Mont., after giving a detail account of his case, says: "I am almost 79 years old and have spent hundreds of dollars for medicines, but find that I have received more benefit from Foley Kidney Pills than from all other medicines." J. J. McNair.

STAPLES MAKES REPLY.

Resignation of A. K. Ware Calls for Stern Rebuke.

A few days ago, E. T. Staples received a letter from E. K. Ware of Medford, in which Mr. Ware tendered his resignation as chairman of the republican county committee. The letter is said to have cast some reflections upon the nominee of the republican convention at Chicago and incidentally upon those whose judgment would lead them to follow the fortunes of Mr. Taft. Mr. Staples, being supporter of Taft, took occasion to hand it back to Mr. Ware in his letter acknowledging receipt of the resignation. We give the full text of Mr. Staples' letter here:

"Ashland, Ore., June 27, 1912. "Mr. A. K. Ware, Medford, Ore.

"Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter tendering your resignation as chairman of the republican county committee and same will no doubt be acted upon at our first meeting.

"I am very sorry that you did not suspend action and judgment a little longer and until you could make your decision and public announcement calmly and without reflection on the judgment and honesty of those of us who hold different opinions. Without entering into a discussion as to the justice of the majority in the recent convention, or any of the former ones, I hope you will agree that there could be such a thing as an honest difference of opinion among men, and that there might yet be some 'broad-minded citizens' that would not accept the 'steam roller' or 'carnegie' methods as altogether chargeable to the nominees of the last convention.

"Some of us are willing to acknowledge that we remember that Theodore Roosevelt fitted up the 'steam roller' with new equipment, bored out the cylinders, and after gratifying himself with this improved machine, which aided him in the temporary destruction of all opponents, including Senator La Follette, he stepped out of the cab and handed it over, saying, 'It's bully.' I now regret as much as anyone that he got in front of it. He should have stayed at home, as he promised to do. Verily, it seems to make a difference whose 'bull' is gored."

"I would be glad if a man who, claiming to be so earnest as you toward the best kind of government, would remain with our great party and help to cure evils in it instead of assisting to destroy it by bolting, with only a chance to succeed.

"As to the platform, which you seem to criticize, there are many of us who think we are 'broad-minded and progressive' that accept the platform as approaching, if not fully meeting, the requirements for best government. I hope you will also concede that some of us who happen to differ with you may at the same time consider ourselves 'decent citizens,' even though we may choose to ratify and support the republican nominee, and if you cannot support the republican nominee we will not venture to say you are not a decent citizen. Possibly in your calmer moments you may, by comparison, yet find that from among all of the evils we may choose the least by supporting the republican nominee. Certainly we must all concede to each other the right of his opinion and at the same time we should be careful in our final judgment and slow to condemn. It is a long time until election and there are many chances for a 'broad-minded man' to change an opinion that he holds today, and many possibilities for the republican nominee to gain first place in the hearts of the voters by proving his honesty, ability and fidelity to the people.

"With best wishes and hoping you will have cooled off before I meet you, I am, Sincerely yours, "E. T. STAPLES, "Secretary Republican County Committee."
